DESCRIPTION

Begin the program in Incheon, South Korea at the University of Utah's Asia Campus. Study and create design for performance, space, environments, and installation from an international and dramaturgical context in Incheon and Seoul. Take a six-day excursion to Taipei, where you will attend the 2017 World Stage Design Exhibition for three days and celebrate the very best in global performance design. Return to Incheon, incorporate international and dramaturgical approaches to design that you have learned throughout the program in a final project. The course will appeal to theatre, film, art, and dance majors.
