Part II. To the Dean of Students or Judicial Affairs Officer: The student above is applying to a learning abroad program coordinated by the University of Utah. Since learning abroad is a privilege, not a right, the University of Utah strictly enforces a judicial review to assess each applicant's disciplinary record before admitting students to the program. The student's application will not be considered until we receive this form. Please submit this form by the application deadline listed above to ensure that the student's application is considered for admission. This form can be submitted in two ways: 1.) You can ask the student to upload the completed form in their online application or 2.) It can be sent directly to the Learning Abroad Office using the address on the next page. Please call the Learning Abroad Office at 801-581-5849 if you have any questions. We appreciate your assistance in answering the following questions.
